Research Design & Analysis Workshop

This workshop is designed to empower participants in research starts from design to the analysis. It will covers : choosing the appropriate design, methodology, sampling & sample size calculation, questionnaire design & validation and data analysis.

This workshop will be conducted through a combination of short lectures and hands on practical and discussion sessions in a small groups of 5-6 participants /group. Each group will be assigned with an experience facilitator. For further details, please visit http://www.pubhealthcollo.org/workshop/brochure.pdf