

CHEVENING ALUMNI OF MALAYSIA

The Chevening Alumni of Malaysia invites you to a public forum on

“The New Challenges of Foreign Policy: Perspectives from the UK”

Date: Monday 9 June at 1800

Location: British High Commissioners Residence, 27 Jalan Langgak Golf, 55000, Kuala Lumpur

From climate change and financial instability to health pandemics and weapons proliferation, a nation’s security and prosperity depend on co-operation with other nations. British Foreign Office Minister Meg Munn will be speaking on these and other challenges in a rapidly changing world.

There will be the opportunity to put questions to the Minister following her talk.

Biography: Meg Munn is the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and is the Minister responsible for relations between the UK and Malaysia.

Chevening scholarships: These prestigious scholarships are funded by the British Government to provide an opportunity to outstanding young Malaysians, from a variety of fields, to further their studies in Britain. Over 1,100 students have travelled to the UK to further their studies.

Chevening Alumni: This organisation provides networking opportunities for former scholars but it is also an organisation which gives something back to society. The alumni have organised a series of successful public forums focussing attention on the topic of Nation Building. The Chevening Alumni has also set up a programme focussed on helping with education for children from disadvantaged backgrounds.

There are limited places at this event so please confirm your attendance in advance by registering with Krisnan Veeriah at the British High Commission.
