

WACANA IKRAB SIRI PERTAMA

Malaysia-West Asia Economic Relations: What's Ahead for Malaysia?

By

Prof. Dr. Jamal Othman
Deputy Director
Institute of West Asian Studies
Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia

11 July 2008

9.00 am

Senat Room, 5th Floor, Chancellory Building
Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia

Synopsis

The speaker will examine Malaysia-West Asia trade performance with special emphasis on the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) member countries. Likely economic impacts to Malaysia from a potential Free Trade Agreement between Malaysia and GCC are also espoused.

Biodata

Dr. Jamal is professor of economics at the School of Economics, Faculty of Economics and Business, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM). His main research interest has been in environmental, resource and agricultural economics as well as trade modelling. Currently, he is Deputy Director with the Institute of West Asian Studies (IKRAB) at UKM.

ALL ARE WARMLY WELCOMED

