

NACES2008 Technical Presentation: UKM Team 2nd Runner-up

Four final year UKM chemical engineering students won the 2nd runner-up award in the National Chemical Engineering Symposium 2008 (NACES2008) held on the 1st -3rd August 2008. The event was hosted by UPM and was attended by chemical engineering students from Curtin Univ, UniKL, UiTM, UM, UKM, UMP, UMS, USM, UTP, UTM and Nottingham Univ. The theme for NACES2008 was Challenges And Opportunities For Chemical Engineers. UKM was represented by twelve 3rd and 4th year chemical engineering students. The topic for the technical presentation was “Energy : Reducing Threats and Enhancing Opportunities” UKM team was represented by Ong Beng Hee (A106684), Shafinaz Zolkeply (A106524), Tewarajan A/L Malayia (A106490) & Wan Khairunnisa Wan Ramli (A106535) and the topic for their presentation was “Microbial Fuel Cell”. The team won cash prize of RM200 and a Trophy.

Fig 1. UKM Team (Nisa, Shafinaz, Ong & Tewa)

Fig 2. UKM Team & Supporters