

From: Ninnat Olanvoravuth <Ninnat.0@chula.ac.th>
Date: Sun, 15 Jan 2012 14:05:07
To: <ncukm@ukm.my>; <sharifa@pop.jaring.my>; <tpha@ukm.my>; <suncukm@ukm.my>;
Norpisah Mat Isa<norpisah@notes.usm.my>; dzul razak<dzulkiflirazak@hotmail.com>
Subject: Announcement of the ASEAN YOUNG LEADERS FELLOWSHIP

Dear Council Chairs and Presidents,

The Nation Multimedia Group has just taken ownership of Yonok University in Lampang, which has been renamed Nation University.

Mr. Thanachai Theerapattanavong, the Chairman of Nation Multimedia Group, and as Chairman of Nation University Council, invites promising young leaders from the ASEAN countries and dialogue partners (Korea, China, Japan, India, Australia and New Zealand) to join the ASEAN Young Leaders Fellowship to address critical challenges confronting the ASEAN community.

A full, non-binding fellowship to 50 YOUNG ASEAN LEADERS from the ASEAN+ countries with outstanding academic and extra-curricular records, plus work experience.

A 3-month all-expenses paid study, culminating with company visits to both leading companies in Thailand and overseas.

Nationalities from the ASEAN + countries who are Master degree holders from the age of 25-28 years, with at least one year working experience.

Candidates should possess potential leadership qualities, both in academic performance (min GPA 3.5) and extra-curricular activities at university level and demonstrate keen interest in the affairs of the world and ASEAN.

Skillful in spoken and written English with a minimum score of 90 for TOEFL ibt (paper-based 577) or 6.5 for IELTS. (exemption applies to students who have undergone an English program undergraduate degree).

Please help make announcement of the ASEAN YOUNG LEADERS FELLOWSHIP to all qualified members of your university.

Thank you and Happy Chinese New Year,

Ninnat

Dr. Ninnat Olanvoravuth
Secretary-General
Association of Southeast Asian Institutions of Higher Learning (ASAIHL)
Chulalongkorn University
Jamjuree 1 Building, Bangkok 10330
Phone: 02-2516966 02-2183201
Fax: 02-2537909