Objective

1. Enhance participants' fluency and confidence in using the English language for effective communication;
2. Enable participants to understand and explain the responsibilities, expectations and dynamics of human communications;
3. Expose participants with appropriate communication strategies in order to participate effectively in individual or group speaking tasks;
4. Expose participants to relevant presentation skills; and
5. Develop relevant presentation skills to be used in their workplace.

Approach:

The course adopts an integrated approach that enables participants to improve on their language skills and apply them in their workplace. The selected topics and relevant skill-based materials provide in-depth focus on specific areas that allows participants to study the language used and practice the skills in related tasks. All the five macro skills are incorporated in the various topics to improve participants' language performance and increase their confidence. The instructor acts as facilitator and provides constructive feedback.

Input:

1. Role play
2. Case study
3. Presentation skills
4. Small group communication
5. Picture stimulus
6. Creative talk